

Texas Association of Teacher Educators

Overview

The Texas Association of Teacher Educators serves as a major voice in the promotion of teacher education goals and ideals in Texas. It is the only Texas organization for individual teacher educators that is affiliated with a national association (Association of Teacher Educators – ATE). Membership includes college faculty and administrators, school and regional service staff developers, school-based teacher educators, classroom teachers, and school administrators. Membership is open to those professionals who are concerned with improving the preparation and education of teachers. TxATE provides a forum for issues in teacher education and has worked for improved teacher centers, preservice preparation, teacher certification, as well as state and national education programs.

Objectives

The objectives of TxATE include:

1. To actively promote high standards for the professional preparation of teachers
2. To actively assume a public relations function in keeping members of the teaching profession, and lay citizens in general, informed as to the most desirable current standards in teacher education
3. To strive to maintain a high standard of professional development of teachers and other staff personnel in the field of education
